Grenada County's quota of the fifty million dollars that the President says the Red Cross must have is $3,000,00. EVERY individual in Grenada county is expected to give something, great or small. Efforts are being made to exceed this quota within a few days.

The Red Cross, "The Great Mother of Mankind," has helped many individuals right here in this city and county, individuals who NOW are on their feet and able to contribute. They MUST kick in. The need is great.

A unified America, particularly the civilian population, must be prepared for contributions to many other worthy causes, but the Red Cross comes FIRST.

Somebody remarked that they did not see any jugs in the Jug Band at the dance Wednesday night but that there were some jugs somewhere.

As we go to press our friend, Grady Triplett is quite ill, and his friends are pulling for him.

Our venerable friend, Mr. W. M. Brunson, of Cascil'a, too is quite ill.

The Fortnightly Club certainly deserves commendation for raising so much money—the most recent being the returns from the dance Wednesday night—for the purchase of milk for the poor children. Mrs. C. C. Cathey is president of the Club. Note to Horn: please spell the club right, no "a"s, please.

Monday will not be too late to get a Christmas Greeting ad in our next issue, to be put in the mail Tuesday night for delivery Wednesday.

Remember Pearl Harbor.

What could be more appropriate than a year's subscription to the Grenada County Weekly, as a Christmas present? $1.50 in this county; $2.00 out of county.

It's "America, Right or Wrong" now.

We have had quite a few renewals and new subscribers, but will get to them next week.

Remember, we are going to cut off all delinquents after January 1st, unless money or good excuses are forthcoming. Paper is getting to be too scarce to give away.

Germany and Italy declared war on the United States recently — a meaningless gesture, as we have been at war for many months.

Kick in to the Red Cross.

Some degree of coordination will come out of the efforts, resembling those of a chicken with its head cut off, of our people, each of whom wants to do something useful. In a short time there will be something useful for each to do. In the meantime remain calm, and keep your head clear and your feet on the ground.

Robbers Were Quickly Apprehended

Two strangers, young white men, are in jail awaiting trial for having smashed the window of Corner Drug Store and the front door of Keeton's Federated Store sometime Tuesday night. Jay Gore, owner of the drug store, evidently did not lost anything, for the hole knocked in his show window was too small to permit the entrance of a man.

From Mr. Keeton's store, about two hundred dollars worth of shoes, trousers, socks and so forth were taken. All property was recovered when Snip Crenshaw, following a "hot" tip, found the men and the goods at a rooming house near the depot.

Notice To Negro Ex-Service Men

All colored men, formerly with the armed forces of the United States, are urged to meet at the colored school in Grenada Friday night, December 19, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of discussing with members of the American Legion and other white ex-service men the common problems that face colored people and white people alike in the emergency that faces the Nation today.

In the first World War, the negro soldier did the part assigned to him to the best of his ability, and his fate today is tied up irretrievably with the fate of the white man.

It is hoped that the colored people who read this will spread the news as effectively as possible.

Yuletide Celebration Wednesday

The Christmas Story lived again in sweet significance as music and voice joined to bring its beauty before guest day meeting of the Fortnightly Club at the Community House Wednesday afternoon and at the annual Yuletide Glee Club presentation under the direction of Miss Inez Donelson, instructor of music and voice at Grenada Schools, presented Wednesday night at G. H. S. auditorium.

At both the school house and Community buildings lovely Christmas decorations were used artistically.

Mrs. C. C. Cathey, president of the Fortnightly Club graciously welcomed the large number of guests and her greeting echoed the note of seriousness of thesituation which has been so suddenly thrust upon the citizens of the United States.

Mrs. E. R. Pleasants acted as commentator.

The Glee Club presentation was really a service of worship in song. The numbers, under Miss Donelson's direction, were splendid.

The Fortnightly Club's Charity Ball Wednesday night was, to put it mildly, a great success. They really "went to town," and the club is to be congratulated for its great work. The proceeds go to the milk fund for under privileged children. Mr. Pryor, of Longwood, as master of ceremonies, was without peer—His "Hallelujah," "buy a cake", and his work for the Charity Fund in getting the guests to cake walk in order to win a home made cake, was everything it should be. The Fortnightly Club will now say "Hallelujah for Mr. Pryor."

RED CROSS DRIVE

In the National 50 million dollars Red Cross War Fund Drive, Grenada County's quota is three thousand dollars.

This is not to be confused with the Membership Drive; it is an emergency drive of first importance. The money you give will be the means of sending aid into the battle front, no matter whether it be on land or sea.

The Mayor of the City of Grenada has set aside by proclamation, Monday, December 22, as volunteer Red Cross War Fund Day.

The need is so great that each business in Grenada County will be allotted a quota, and this supplemented by other donations should put Grenada County over the top. Should you, for some reason, fail to volunteer to give to this fund, which is to be used to fight in the war with a common enemy, you will be called upon by a committee.

Remember that your dollars will be the means of saving lives risked for you and your Country, so GIVE! GIVE!! GIVE!!!

All volunteers' names with their donations will be listed in local papers.

Boy Scouts Ready To Render Service

The Boy Scout organization has never failed to function in time of national crisie. Now that our country is in war the boy scouts are willing and anxious to render the services that scouting qualifies them to give. Troop 15 of Grenada City Schools consists of 27 boys at present, soon the troop will reach its maximum of 32 and then another troop will have to be organized but we can not organize a second troop until qualified leadership is secured. A number of our boy scouts are without uniforms, some have grown out of them. Every scout should have a uniform. Scouting does not approve of giving uniforms to boys unless it is by the family but does approve of a boy earning it. Patriotic citizens can make contribution to scouting by finding some work for a boy without uniform who is unable to buy one and through his work enable him to make the desired purchase. The scout master of our troop is H. O. Stewart and assistant scout master Burnell Walker and the boys of the troop are as follows:

Bobby Townes, Billy Thelsman, Leon Provine, Bobby Alexander, Larry Noble, Brannon Anderson, Teddy Revell, Warren Robinson, Kirl Avent, Giles Patty, Bennie Cohen, James Elliott, Billy Parham, Terrell Richardson, Jimmy Nail, Louis Odom, Vincent Lauttza, Orman Kimbrough, Jr., Jimmy Boone, Tommy Hollinsworth, Tom Irby, Bobby Calk, Hal Pleasants, Louis Weir, Jimmy McKell, Earl Moss, Warner Moss, Alton Moss Blanton Duncan Billy Jolce, Thomas Allen.

The following terse telegram from Joe Hayward in the USN at Pearl Harbor gladdened the hearts of Sheriff and Mrs. Taylor Hayward: "Everything Alright. Joe Hayward," having been sent from Honolula on December 15th. Joe and Herbert Hayward are together on one of Uncle Sam's destroyers.

Buses Operate Again; Strike In Mediation

Buses throughout the nine-state system of the Tri-State Transit company resumed operation at 7 a. m. Sunday under an agreement signed at Shreveport between company and union representatives to arbitrate all matters under dispute.

The resumption of service came after more than eight days of idleness by the drivers, members of Local 1127 of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electrical Railway and Motor Coach Employes of America. The walkout occurred at midnight Dec. 5 after the company and union failed to agree on a proposed graduated wage scale.

The agreement, which was worked out late Saturday night and signed the next morning, provided that the drivers operate the buses while the matters in dispute are settled by arbitration committee composed of representatives of the comanpy, the union and the Federal Labor Conciliation service.

It was signed by W. Harry Johnson, president of the transit company which makes its headquarters in Shreveport, and Otto DeBate, R. I. Burton, federal conciliator, acted as advisor.

At the same time the agreement was announced, Johnson announced that Tri-State had been granted a franchise to operate buses between Birmingham, Ala., and Texarkana, Ark., over Highway 82.

Tri-State operates in Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas, Arkansas, Alabama, Kentucky, Missouri, Illinois and Tennessee.

$50,000 Grenada Bonds On 2 3-4 Basis

Monday morning, after spirited bidding, $50,000.00 issue of Grenada bonds was sold to a group of six purchasers on a 2 3-4 percent basis, with a premium of $5.00.

The proceeds of these bonds will be used to build an addition to the city-owned hosiery mill property on the southern edge of Grenada. Obviously, the issue received approval from the Chancellor, the State Bond attorney and Mr. Charles, the St. Louis bond attorney.

The present state of the bond market was assigned as the reason for the high rate of interest.

Eugene R. Proudfit Died Early Wednesday Morning

Mr. Eugene R. Proudfit, veteran postal clerk in the Grenada postoffice, died in the hospital in Grenada early Wednesday morning, December 3, 1941. He had been ill at home for about a month preceding his death and, while his condition was known to be serious, his death came as a shock to the community.

He was born in Ripley, Mississippi, on June 10, 1880, and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Proudfit, who moved to this city over forty years ago. Mr. Proudfit has been continuously in service at the local post office since 1905, a period of 36 years. On February 17, 1918, he and Miss Cora Gladstone Duval, of Sardis, were married. Since 1918, he has been a member of the Methodist Church.

Gene Proudfit was a kindly unassuming man who stuck faithfully to his duties to the government he served so long. Quiet in his maner, he was never known to intrude himself or his opinion upon others. He enjoyed the esteem and confidence of his associates at the post office and those of the public in general.

Services were conducted from the home on First street on Thursday morning by Rev. Roy Gresham and Rev. W. L. Robinson, both of the Methodist Church, and Rev. C. S. Liles, Rector of All Saints Episcopal Church. Interment in the Grenada cemetery followed.

The active pallbearers were Messrs. Avent McElwrath, Donald Sharp, H. H. Heath, W. A. Billups, James Cuff, and Jack McClure.

Honorary pallbearers included all members of the local post office force, Dr. J. S. Sharp, Mayor R. W. Sharp, A. R. Dockery, J. P. Pressgrove, J. Gore, John Rundle, Dr. C. K. Bailey, Kno Pierce, Frank Gerard, O. L. Kimbrough, J. B. Keeton, H. Graves, E. L. Bass, J. M. Hodges and John Murray.

Surviving Mr. Proudfit are his widow, Mrs. Cora D. Proudfit, and one son, Duval Proudfit; one brother, John Proudfit, of Memphis, and two sisters, Mrs. Lydie Harris, of Memphis, and Mrs. Fay Vanbergen, of Columbus, Mississippi, to whom we extend our sincere sympathy.

1942 AAA Handbook Being Mailed Out

A copy of the 1942 AAA Handbook, stressing more conservation, more milk, more eggs, more meat, more vegetables, and more fruit on Mississippi farms, is being mailed to each Grenada county farmer, E. W. Hays, county AAA administrative officer, said this week.

Containing all the provisions of the agricultural conservation program for the new year, the 1942 Handbook has been developed out of nine years' experience and is designed to give the fullest opportunity and the maximum assistance in planning and carrying out a good farming program on each farm.

"The 1942 Handbook represents the collective experience and composite thinking of the farmers themselves," Mr. Hays said. "Last April, our farmers were asked to attend county-wide meetings for the purpose of making recommendations they wanted included in this program. Suggestions of Mississippi farmers combined with recommendations of other farmers all over the Nation have resulted in the program outlined in the Handbook."

This year's AAA program is also designed to meet urgent needs of national defense. For 1942 the objectives of the program include the production of sufficient food for our own people and for the countries which are resisting aggressor nations.

The Red Cross Is Calling

(Contributed)

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Citizen, are you a patriotic American and do you truly wish to serve your Country in this grave world crisis? Your answer to each question of course, is a prompt affirmative.

All right, here's your chance to do so. The Red Cross asks the American people for an emergency fund of $50,000,000 for work in this war. The Grenada County quota is $30,000.00. Let's give it, and give it quick. Let's go over the quota in record breaking time, just as Grenada County has always done, when called upon in cases of this nature.

Right here, and now is a fine place for us to show our patriotism is real, and not merely talk. We cannot all serve in uniforms, but we all can serve in this great patriotic manner.

The Red Cross is calling. Let's all make our contributions, promptly and generously.

A Word For The Members Of Congress

We know that, if a Senator or a member of the House would write what we are going to write, the constituents would swell up like a dead steer in the summertime and these constituents would say "He don't love me no more," and refuse to vote for the officer again.

We, therefore, take it upon ourselves to urge the people to refrain from writing useless letters to the members of Congress, for these gentlemen are engaged in most important work and do not have the time to write the meaningless letters, the kind they most often have to write to those seeking jobs, army camps, and personal favors.

We have read hundreds of replies from members of Congress. These letters consist of a lot of words, and are couched in polite phrase which, boiled down, mean less than nothing.

Let the Senators and members of Congress alone a while. Do not bother them. If they are worth anything to the country at any time, they are doubly valuable now, and their time should not be wasted as office boys for their constituents.

Repair Your Farm Implements Now

Every agency of the government is engaged in urging the farmers of America to produce more, and yet more food. After all, an army travels on its belly, as Napoleon said, and the army with the greatest food stores will win the war.

To produce more food, farmers' tools must be in the best possible shape. This applies equally to the farm tractor and the humble "bull tongue" stock.

The government has given to the farmers a form of priority in steel so that they can obtain needed repair parts, if they put their names in the pot (or, order from their regular dealers) in time.

Joy-riders may be crying for new batteries and new tires, and Uncle Sam will shake his head with a definite frown; but Mr. Farmer can make Uncle Sam smile if he goes to the dealer and puts in his order for whatever repair parts he needs to bring his farm implements, simple or complicated, into good condition.

The larger farmers are taking advantage of the priority given the farmers and ARE getting their repair parts in readiness—maybe that evidence of business acumen is the reason they are large farmers instead of share croppers—but there is evidence that the small fellow is going to wait, as usual, until the first fair day in March to come to town to get a new plow point.

May we urge most earnestly that the farmers of Grenada County check over their implements and make arrangements, while they can to replace worn or broken parts?

The War "Coming Home" To Us

With the announcement of the death (presumably at Pearl Harbor on last Sunday) of Coxswain Gus Hayward Norwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Norwood, Duck Hill, the tragedy of war has come mighty close to Grenada County, for this victim who "was lost in action in the performance of his duty and the service of his Country was a very close neighbor boy and he was also nephew of Clyde, Will and Taylor Hayward and of Mrs. N. B. Jacks, and cousin of many of the younger generation of this excellent family.

The Vital Repairman

The repairmen, whether the vulcanizer or the scissors grinder, are becoming more and more important in the Nation today.

No longer can the car owner swap in his car when he has a bent fender, when his valves need grinding or when he has driven his car 25,000 miles. He cannot readily obtain a new car, and his ability to get a new car will become increasingly more difficult. That's where the expert car mechanics come in.

With a virtual embargo on the sale of tires for pleasure cars until December 22, and with the prospets that after that date new tires may be obtained only by those who are engaged in pursuits essential to the national defense effort, old tires and tubes must be repaired and retreaded, and that's where the vulcanizer enters prominently into the picture.

Such fellows as Biddy with his machine shop, Jake Kettle with his small repair shop, Red Briscoe with his vulcanizing shop, the various garages and car repair departments, and others who mend and repair, Gene Beard with his furniture repair shop, and others in similar vocations, are indeed our most essential citizens at this time. Without them, we would be in a mell of a hess.

The War Situation

Although Japan stabbed us in the back on last Sabbath day, and by surprise knocked out several of the units of our Asiatic fleet, the war now is not going to Japan's liking.

Little has she to show for her nine-days efforts which started with the quick thrust at Pearl Harbor except the damage done there and the sinking of two of Britain's great war ships.

Taking stock of the Allied position in the Far East, note the heroic stand of a handful of Marines on tiny Wake Island. They still grin defiantly in the face of danger and give a jaunty "thumbs up" to millions of enthusiastic countrymen.

Who will join them, to fight with them if they survive, to avenge their slaughter if they are killed—to make that pint size island another Alamo, an imperishible shrine of American valor? Inevitably it sounds the death knell of Japan's war-crazed war lords, and of the Nazi instigators of this terrible breach of faith, this terrible crime.

The pendulum is swinging inexorably against the Japanese in the Philippines, Malaya and the broad reaches of the mighty Pacific Ocean. Hong Kong, the British Crown Colony off the coast of the China mainland, fortunately is not strategically very important, for this bastion is likely to fall. Even the loss of Hong Kong is not certain for the Chinese allies are making rear and flanking attacks on the Japanese besiegers, while the Dutch Navy, eager to avenge Rotterdam and the homeland, are gnawing at the Japanese supply lines. Before the outbreak of the Japanese conflict, it was freely rumored that the British might abandon Hong Kong and fall back to strongly fortified Singapore; that they have not done so is an indication that the Allies plan an offensive, rather than a defensive war in that area.

Let no one think that we have a push over with Japan, as many though prior to last Sunday, but it seems definite that the Japanese have lost their momentum and that shortly the tides will turn against this nation which made a most desperate gamble with its national existence.

Crenshaw-Hoffa Vows Said In Beautiful Church Wedding Friday, Dec. 12th At Eleven-Thirty O'clock A. M.

In one of the important weddings of the pre-holiday season, Miss Martha Donelson Hoffa, daughter of Colonel W. B. Hoffa, of this city, became the bride of Mr. Charles G. Crenshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Crenshaw, of Greenwood, on Friday morning at eleven-thirty o'clock, December twelfth, nineteen hundred and forty-one, at the Presbyterian Church. The Rev. C. A. Pharr officiating in the presence of a large and fashionable gathering of relatives and friends from Tennessee and Mississippi.

The simple dignity emphasized in the church decorations was in keeping with the quiet elegance of the wedding. The bridal altar was of Southern smilax, tiny pine boughs and charming arrangements of woodland shrubs in lovely autumn tints of gold and rose. Outlining the entire arrangement were Boston ferns and Magnolia leaves. Flanking the choir loft were two Wicker baskets filled with exquisite pale gold chrysanthemums.

Mrs. John Sidney Sharp presided at the organ, and she assisted by Mrs. Rob Brown, violinist, and Mrs. F. S. Hill, soloist, presented the following nuptial musical program preceding the ceremony. The first solo, by Mrs. Sharp, was "Meditation" by Thais; Mrs. Rob Brown, accompanied by Mrs. Sharp, played Schubert's Serenade. Mrs. F. S. Hill sang, "Sweetest Story Ever Told." During the ceremony, Mrs. Sharp played "Venetian Love Song." The traditional wedding marches were used.

Mrs. Sharp, attired in a handsome black frock had a corsage of yellow mums tied with narrow gold ribbon. Mrs. Brown wore a charming gold nailhead studded green dress and her corsage was of pink gladioli tied with gold. Mrs. Hill's costume was of blue crepe and her lovely lavender pink corsage was of gladioli blossoms, tied with gold ribon.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She chose a costume suit of blue fox wool. The full length top coat was collared in Lynx and her accessories were in plantation brown; her small hat with the same fur trim as her coat, was draped with a short brown veil. She carried an arm bouquet of Talisman rose buds, tied with gold ribbon.

Miss Eloise Wilkins, as maid of honor, was the bride's only attendant. She was attired in a charming dress of Kelly green crepe and carried bronze California chrysanthemums tied with gold ribbon. Her lovely off the face hat, and accessories were of pale gold.

Mr. Austin Crenshaw served as his brother's best man, and Messrs. W. B. Hoffa, Jr., Byron Hunter, Jack McClure, and Raymond White, of Greenwood, were ushers. They wore business suits, as did the groom, and had a small rose bud on their coat lapel.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Colonel Hoffa and the late Mrs. Velma Claud Hoffa, and is a descendant of the Martin and Donelson families of Tennessee and Mississippi. She is a graduate of Grenada Schools and Grenada College.

The groom, a member of the prominent and honorable Crenshaw and Vardaman families, is a graduate of the University of Mississippi. He is engaged in farming at Scobey, where they will reside on the Crenshaw plantation.

After the luncheon the bride and groom left for a honeymoon in South Mississippi.

RECEPTION FOR OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS

Following the wedding, the relatives and out-of-town guests and wedding attendants were feted at the Hoffa home at a beautiful reception and luncheon. Miss Adele Hoffa, sister of Colonel Hoffa, presided as the gracious hostess of the home, receiving her guests attired in an attractive black crepe dress.

The home presented a most charming appearance. The large living room was decorated with Yuletide greenery, red candles and potted plants; the sun parlor, where the many lovely wedding gifts were displayed, was charming with the artistically arranged Southern smilax and potted plants. At the French door entrance to the dining room, beautiful white chrysanthemums were placed, flanking the door way. The dining table was draped with an imported banquet cloth of exquisite embroidery and centered by a beautiful bouquet of pink gladioli gracefully arranged in a black container.

The menu served at one o'clock to thirty-five guests consisted of:

Turkey . . . Potato salad . . . Tomato aspic in lettuce cups
Cranberry sauce on Orange slices
Delicious red hued baked apples
Salted nuts . . Pickle . . Hot Rolls
Coffee.

Mrs. John Keeton served the turkey and she was assisted in serving in the dining room by Mrs. Jim Keeton and Mrs. John Bradley. Relatives of the bride from Memphis included her beloved Aunt, Mrs. R. P. Lake, and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Donelson Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Auguste Branbant, Mrs. T. W. Harsh, Mrs. Lee B. Jones, and Mr. Charles Lake. The grooms relatives included his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Crenshaw, from Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Crenshaw, of Memphis; the groom's grandmother, Mrs. J. D. Crenshaw, of Scobey, and his uncle, Mr. John Vardaman, of Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Freeman, of Greenwood, (Mrs. Freeman is an aunt of the groom), and another aunt, Mrs. Jenkins, of Charleston. Two friends of the groom's family, Mesdames Bob Brown, and Roy Scott, also Mr. Raymond White, of Greenwood, were present and Mrs. Louise DeMoville, nee Elizabeth Wilkins, of Okolona, and Mrs. P. T. LaGrone, of Greenville, were friends from out of town to attend.

REHEARSAL PARTY

On Thursday evening at 8 o'clock the Crenshaw-Hoffa wedding party and a group of approximately thirty-five friends, were entertained beautifully at the home of Mrs. E. E. Wilkins on Margin Street.

For this occasion a lavish Yuletide motif was emphasized in the drawing room which features many antiques and paintings. The very charming Christmas tree before the fire place, with its many multi-colored lights vied with the lovely arrangements of red berry holly and Christmas candles in red. Miss Hoffa chose a lovely white silk net formal for this delightful courtesy and Mrs. Wilkins welcomed her guests attired in a blue lace formal. Miss Isabele Bailey, in white silk marquette, presided at the huge punch bowl and served delectable punch in which ice cubes centered with red and green cherries, and pineapple mints added zest.

The handsome dining room was candle lighted and here all decorations were white. Suspended from the chandelier, and grouped most artistically were white Christmas bells. An added attraction was the lovely arrangement from the chandelier of white ribbons to each corner of the lace draped table where tall white tapers glowed in silver holders. White tapers glowed on buffet and mantle also.

The beautiful three-tiered wedding cake in snowy white was surmounted by a tableau of bride and groom attired in traditional splendor. Encircling the cake were white button chrysanthemums interspersed with fragil ferns and these concealed many favors for the guests as mementoes of the occasion. The bride-elect, lovely Martha Hoffa guided by the hand of the groom-to-be, cut the first slice of cake. She then relinquished the serving of the cake to Mrs. Lucie DeMoville. Mrs. DeMoville was charming in a formal evening frock of black velvet with green tunic.

Mrs. Townes Duncan, Miss Lucy Webb Sharp, in rose taffeta formal and Miss Eloise Wilkins in blue taffeta evening dress, assisted in serving three way brick ice cream.

MISS NEELY HONORED

Miss Ann Neely, bride-elect of Mr. Bill Fedric was again honored on Sunday last at a beautiful luncheon given her by Miss Claire Weir at the Barwin Hotel.

The long dining table, where eighteen place besides the honoree, were laid, was draped with a handsome damask cloth. Centering the table was a beautiful cake with a bride and groom standing atop. Encircling the cake was a wreath of ferns and placed at each side was a silver candle stick holding a lighted white taper. White chrysanthemums adorned each end of the table, and the bride-to-be place was marked by a lovely corsage. A picture of a bride and groom adorned the place cards.

Miss Weir's mother received the guests in the lobby of the Hotel, also assisted her daughter present the family's wedding gift, a set of crystal goblets. These were presented at the time desert was served.

Those privileged to attend this very lovely luncheon were: Miss Ann Neely, Mrs. J. H. Neely, Sr., Mrs. J. H. Neely, Jr., Misses Lucy Webb Sharp, Anna Rose Finney, Marguerite Finney, Annie Anderson, Mary Ann Scott, Edith Penn, Ethel George Nichols Eloise Wilkins Isabele Bailey, Margaret Stoddard, Elizabeth Townsend, Betsy Shields, Martha Bess Brown and Mrs. H. L. Lane, Jr., Miss Claire Weir, and Mrs. Sax Weir.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESS FETED

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cathey entertained their house guests at a beautifully planned dinner Wednesday evening. The group later attended the Fortnghtly Club's Charity Ball, staged at the Community House. The handsome home was aglow with Christmas decorations, and the Yuletide motif was emphasized in the serving of the dinner. The honor guests were Dr. and Mrs. Ashford Little, of Oxford, Mr. and Mrs. Lowry Pryor, of Longwood, Mrs. Nawen Cathey Mallory, of Memphis, and Mr. Rabun Jones, of Leland.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB

The Twentieth Century Club met on Tuesday afternoon at the hands me home of Mrs. H. L. Honeycutt for their regular meeting and annual Christmas party. Mrs E. R. Marders was co-hostess. Almost all of the club members were there and the following group of extra guests. Mesdames George Granberry, Ward Allen, Caldwell, Meek, Merrit, Pearson, Herring, Robinson and Jones, all enjoyed a splendid Christmas story program given beautifully by Mrs. Cowles Horton and Mrs. R. L. Vandiver.

Mrs. R. H. Herring delighted the group by playing several Christmas selections on the piano, also accompanied Mrs. George Granberry when she sang several songs. The guests joining in the singing as requested.

The home was most charming in appearance with subdued colored lights and the lighted Christmas tree. Vases containing lovely arrangements of winter green and red were placed at points of vantage, and a most attractive grouping of lights and greenery adorned the mantle. Following the program and music interlude the hostesses, assisted by two charming daughters of the Honeycutt home, Mrs. Pat Mullin and Mrs. Jimmie Todd, served a beautiful plate containing delicious "Ice Box" pie, ribbon sandwiches, olives and coffee.

MISS SHANNON BECOMES BRIDE

Interesting today is the wedding of Miss Cecile Evelyn Shannon to Lieut. James Steele Dollahite, of Greenville, Miss., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Dollahite, of Oakland, Miss. which is announced by the bride's mother, Mrs. James Polk Shannon, of Lake Cormorant, Miss. Both are frequent Memphis visitors.

The marriage was solemnized at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride with the Rev. W. M. Campbell officiating.

An improvised altar of greenery and arrangements of white carnations was the place of the ceremony.

The bride wore a Sorrento blue suit with a deep shawl collar of Lynx fur. Her flowers were orchids. Miss Mary Helen Rowe was her only attendant. She wore gold crepe with a corsage of gardenias.

Albert Vernon Shannon was best man.

The couple left for a wedding trip to New Orleans and upon their return will live at Greenville where Lieutenant Dollahite is stationed with the Army Air Base.

Mrs. Dollahite was educated at Fairmont Junior College in Washington and attended the University of Mississippi, where she was a member of Phi Mu Sorority. She was voted the most beautiful girl at the University.

Lieutenant Dollahite attended the University of Mississippi, where he was a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity.

The above will be read with interest by friends of the charming bride, who has visited in Grenada, on occasions, as guest of her aunt, Mrs. Grover Long, also as a representative at the annual Mardi Gras Ball. She is also a niece of Mrs. J. M. McGowan, of Jackson, Miss.

ANNUAL DINNER DANCE

The annual dinner dance enjoyed by the employees at Grenada Industries, Incorporated, was staged Saturday evening at the Community House.

Victory decorations, featuring red, white and blue, were supplemented by Yuletide red berry laden holly and small pine boughs. The entire dance hall was over hung with hundreds of multi-colored baloons. These were not showered on the guests until after midnight.

The most beautiful part of the decoration however, was an illuminated American flag. A current of air forced against its beautiful folds, giving the effect of the flag rippling in the wind. The large spot light thrown on the flag, furnished light for the dancers.

As the guests entered the hall they were given their "prize number", and at the conclusion of the evening, a beautiful leather week-end bag, stocked with imported cosmetics was awarded to Miss Sitt Hitt. Bingo was enjoyed throughout the evening and Mississippi State Band furnished the music.

In the dining room, Miss May Caldwell presided, in her usual gracious manner, as dinner hostess. Served buffet style, was a delicious supper consisting of salads, turkey sandwiches, choice condiments and sweets. Two thousand cold "drinks" were served. This brilliant affair was attended by five hundred people and was a most happy Yuletide event. Mr. and Mrs. Goodman, Mr. Solar, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Keeton, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Perry, Jr., and Professor Rundle received the guests. Mr. Goodman and Mr. Rundle each addressed the assembly. The choir composed of voices from the Grenada Industries, Incorporated, sang several Christmas Carols.

Mrs. H. W. Baker, assisted by Mrs. S. H. Horton, served the supper.

Exquisite Roses and Carnations as Christmas gifts. Delivered as requested. Henderson Floral Co. Phone 686.

NEWEST HOMECOMING QUEEN

The scene Centre Stadium; setting, half of the Centre-Chattanooga Home coming; time, crowning of the Home coming Queen. Action—the cars begin to arrive. Dean Hewlett arrives first. Then comes President Owsley Rochester laden down and practically hidden by chrysanthemums. The other cars arrive slowly bearing the candidates for the queen and their escorts; Vivian Watts with Odid Matthews, Mary Douglas Honeycutt with Bob Norris, and Suzanne Russell with Phil Gullion.

Owsley Rochester takes over the mike and gives up his chrysanthemums as he introduces each candidate for queen. Dr. Hewlett reaches into his jacket, searches wildly for that tiny scrap of paper, his face resumes its natural expression as he brings forth that all important notice. Mary Douglas Honeycutt, in all her melliferous splendor is announced Home coming queen, and presented with a huge armful of chrysanthemums. The queen was attired in a three piece green tweed sports ensemble with brown accessories, beautifully and appropriately dressed.

Miss Honeycutt comes to us from Grenada, Mississippi and brings with her a very sweet and winsome smile, and a true southern accent. Her manners are most charming and gracious. She is known to all her fellow students as "Honey" which is indicative of her sweet disposition. She is a Junior and last year was chosen by the Olde Centre to appear in the charm section: "Honey" is also well known for her musical interests.

As the excitement began to wayne, up charged Bob Tyler in his gold and white Jalopy. He as chauffeur jumped out and pasted the queen's signs all over the car. Enthusiasts helped boost "Honey" and Bob onto the turned down of the rumble. After a little persuasion and considerable pushing, the "car" started, circled the field and then drove out carrying with the Homecoming royalty.—Centre College Cento.

Congratulations to Mary Douglas, who first received the name of "Little Honey" here at home with her own High School "gang."

She rated a write up in Ruby's Report in "Catching up with the World" who said quote "Centre College's football queen, Miss Mary Douglas Honeycutt, a Mississippi beauty, is decidedly photogenis, as the illustration revealed." The report had a lovely picture of Mary Douglas that we were unable to secure.

PRESBYTERIAN CIRCLE MEETS

Mesdames H. D. Lane, Sr., and W. W. Robinson were co-hostesses to twenty-one members of their Circle on Monday afternoon, at the attractive new home of Mrs. Robinson.

The program leader, Mrs. Harry Adams, assisted by Mrs. T. T. Yeager and Mrs. Thomas Grant gave a very beautiful Christmas story, "We have Come to Worship Him." Rogers Pleasants and Warren Robinson sang "Holy Night".

After the program, Mrs. Adams invited the Circle members to remain for a social hour as guests of Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Lane.

Each guest received a lovely corsage from their hostesses who also served delicious refreshments consisting of date pudding and coffee. Other members of the circle who had part in the program, also assisted the two hostesses were Mesdames Cooley, Joe H. Thompson and P. H. Youngblood.

The bride is a graduate of Mississippi State College for Women and a member of Alpha Psi Omega and Pi Omega Pi, national honorary sorority, having served as president of the latter during her senior year. For the past year and a half she has been employed by the National Youth Administration at Tupelo, Miss.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC BY SNIP CRENSHAW

I wish to notify the public that I have resigned from the sheriff's force, and I did it of my own free will because the sheriff refused me permission to make the raid on yesterday, December 17, 1941, which apprehended the thieves who broke into Keeton's store and the Corner Drug Store and recovered the goods stolen.

I made this raid and made those arrests after I had resigned and turned in my badge. Neither the city officers, nor any members of the sheriff's force had anything whatsoever to do with the capture of these thieves.

Seen, Heard and Told

Until Corporal Whitaker finds out definitely whether he is permitted to write information for publication, he is staying on the safe side by omitting his column this week. We believe that he will find upon investigation that, if he refrains from giving vital military information, he will have full permission to continue his column. We certainly hope so, and we know that many of our readers share this hope.

Whyte, Jr., and a number of other "home company" boys expect to be home on ten day leaves about next Monday.

The Japs have failed to capitalize on their initial advantage gained by the sudden, unannounced attack upon Pearl Harbor. This will probably be a long and bloody war, in which Herr Hitler is the master enemy, while Japan is merely a part, if an important one, in the ultimate outcome of hostilities.

One of the greatest things that has happened is the unification of the American people, the burying of the political hatchets in the National Congress and the realization that Japan is a formidable foe, not a push over.

Even if there is a war going on, men still admire shapely limbs of the so-called weaker sex.

Dear Allen: let us know how you are getting along, even if you do not have time to write any articles for the GCW.

We are publishing elsewhere the classic, "Yes, Virginia, There Is a Santa Claus," and our linotypist, Mr. Horn, can set that article by heart, as he has set it at least 25 times.

While there may be subdued exuberance among the adults about the Yuletide season, the children should be made to have as happy a Christmas as possible. The kids know nothing about this terrible situation the nation faces, and they will find out soon enough when they become adults and are repaying the huge debts incurred for the prosecution of this war.

The democratic world cannot afford to fight Germany every generation and, therefore, nothing less than the absolute abolition of Nazism should be the objective.

Suggested Christmas gift: the GCW to some loved one, or to someone who is unable to pay the small cost of this subscription, $1.50 (as long as we can stand it) in the county, $2.00 elsewhere are our subscription charges. We, like most newspaper men, feel that an advance in subscription prices is inevitable.

Another suggestion for Christmas present for wife, sweetheart or friend: a package containing 100 sheets of paper and 100 printed envelopes, with name and address, for $2.00. Ask those who have used this combination. The wimmenfolks particularly appreciate such stationery.

Remember Pearl Harbor.

We heard that one of Jean Heath's sons—a member of the USN—was killed in action. We have been unable to verify this report and, of course, hope it is not true.

We also heard that a colored soldier by the name of Mister was reported killed recently. No details available.

This war is "coming home" to Grenada people, white and colored.

The draft boad has already extracted all of the cream from the churn, is going to go below the cream line after the first of January. Missing teeth and flat feet will not forever bar otherwise healthy, strong and vigorous young men.

An important meeting at the Mayor's office, at which a number of deputies were appointed, was held Friday, but it is deemed inadvisable to go into details about this.

America, may she be forever right; but American, right or wrong.

County newspapers are going to have to live WITHOUT much foreign advertising and the sooner they get their budgets adjusted to that condition the better chance they have to paddle on.

Mrs. E. R. Trotman, of Lexington, was a recent guest of her mother, Mrs. Arthur Kettle.

Private George C. Perry, of Camp Walters, Texas, is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Perry, Sr., and other members of the clan.

A relaxation of physical standards for enlistments in the U. S. Navy and the Naval Reserve was announced this week by the Navy Department. In commenting on this action, the Navy Department announcement stated that numerous men who in past months have sought to enlist and have been rejected on the basis of minor physical defects will, because of the modification of physical standards, be encouraged to reapply for enlistment in either the regular Navy or the Naval Reserve for the duration of the emergency.

The Navy Department has requested that any person knowing of young men who had been barred from enlistment in the Navy or the Naval Reserve because of minor physical reasons should bring this modification in physical requirements to the attention of these young men.

Applicants with varicose veins will be acceptable under the changed standards, this varicocele condition to be corrected, if the condition is painful, at the Naval Training Stations to which the new recruits are sent. Hydrocele, another defect that formerly ruled out numerous applicants, will be corrected, if necessary, after enlistees arrive at Training Stations; Applicants suffering from hernia will be accepted provided their I. Q.'s are 75 or better. Recruits suffering from hernia will be treated at the Training Stations and will be enrolled for schooling during their periods of convalescence.

Other physical defects which prevented men from being accepted as recruits, but which now are waived, are seasonal hay fever; correctible nasal deformities or nasal deformities of such a degree as not to interfere with duty; undernourished and undeveloped applicants, providing the condition is not due to organic disease; and minor becausee of any of the defects noted aed within a month. Applicants who possess 18 natural serviceable teeth, with at least two molars in funcitional occlusion and not more than four incisors missing, will be acceptable. Dental treatment will be given at the Training Stations.

Any applicant who has been rejected because of any of the defects noted above is urged to reapply for enlistment in the Navy or Naval Reserve immediately.

All applicants accepted with defects requiring correction will be hospitalized. After correction of these defects recruits will be returned to their Training Stations at the earlist practicable time.

These modified physical standards will apply for all applicants for enlistment in either the regular Navy or the Naval Reserve with the exception of applicant for enlistment in classes for ...pective commissioning.

To get this issue out on Tuesday, it will be necesary for our force to work all day Sunday.

Brock Reunion December 7th, 1941

Chosing a fine fall Sunday, Doctor and Mrs. W. G. Brock, at their home in West, Miss., had a gathering of the Brock families. Fifty seven of the ilk, kith and kin ranging in age from seventeen to sixty-five years responded to the bidding of the host and hostess. In addition there were present twenty-five olive branches ranking from babe in arms to youth.

All gathered together and ate together at tables placed in the large rooms and halls of the home. Fortyfive places at the tables were occupied at one time. A bounteous plate of assorted meats and salads, of which cakes and coffee were served. Later great platters of assorted home made tasty candies were passed among the happy throng.

After discussing the latert war news and the evening drawing on, each kinsman counting the day well spent, bid the host and each other good bye's.

A Package Wrapped....

We are drawing near the end of a momentous year in American history. Because 1941 was expected to be fraught with dangers, the railroads approached it with more than a little apprehension. And indeed there were some persons who genuinely doubted that the railroads could do the job that lay ahead of them.

Yet somehow THAT JOB HAS BEEN DONE, complicated though it has been by the demands of national defense, rapid and often unpredictable turns in traffic, quick calls for rate readjustments, priorities on railway materials, bumper crops, lack of storage in critical places, strikes and threats of strikes.

Our Illinois Central pledge for 1941 was that we were ready for action and wide awake at the switch. Money has been spent, methods improved, sweat raised to make that pledge come true. We have worked hard—all of us—and we all take pride in the accomplishments of our service.

To our customers we say:

ABOVE ALL ELSE, we want you to know how MUCH your patronage has meant to us, how sincerely glad we have been to contribute to whatever satisfaction the year has brought you.

We extend our thanks and season's greetings through the continued performance of complete and satisfactory transportation. Ours is a package that will be WRAPPED IN GOOD WISHES, loaded carefully and delivered on time.

President

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

Captain L. O. Berris, former Grenadian, now in Washington, spent a few days in Grenada recently. He looks well and prosperous.

Cousin Will Hoffa is still trying to get me to read the Donelson family tree, but it is too much like the "begat" chapter in the Bible.

Aint they sweet.

Remember Pearl Harbor.

First Lieutenant John M. Leigh of the local power company force has been called to report to Camp Forest for physical examination preparatory to being sent to Camp Monmouth, N. J., in the meantime having been transferred from the Coast Artillery to the Signal Corps.

We hope that all of our friends will notify us of any "war" news, such as visits of soldiers home, call of men to active duty, etc., etc. We are not omnipotent.

People have now begun to realize that it will require more than singing "God Bless America" to stop the Axis powers.

Remember Pearl Harbor.

The slogan to be carried above the masthead of the Collins Commercial until after the war is a most appropriate one, "Heads Up, Eyes Open, Mouths Shut and Hands Busy; For Victory."

Speaking of the Collins Commercial, Jimmie Arrington, its versatile and humerous editor, recently reported that his wife complained about their new baby HOLDING four or five bottles of milk at night, but the trouble was that the baby was not HOLDING it.

The Chancery Clerk's office looks natural with John Pressgrove back on the job. Rice and "Miss" Lillie made a good job of carrying on while John was away from duty.

We have neither the facilities nor the inclination to seek to compete with radio and daily newspapers in giving war news and we will continue to try to live up to our slogan, "Grenada County News a Specialty; Other News Used Only in an Emergency," tho we do expect to relax that rule to some extent in aiding, so far as we can, in disseminating information about the various auxiliary activities—such as Red Cross, etc.—attendant upon war.

Several FSA clients are expected to be de-mulled soon.

The burden of this war fall heaviest upon the parents, particularly the mothers, of ALL nations at war, friends and enemies alike. Military service in wartime breeds a devil-may-care spirit in the men, and, if they worry or are scared, they conceal their real feelings.

Since the buses started operating again the Roses are more rosy than ever. Tommie said the strike was just killing him.

Lem Boone used some of that $25.00 aldermanic salary to get himself straightened out on our subscription list.

Going to Washington now does no more good than going to Derma or Sarapta. People in Washington are busy. Their plans are already laid.

For our friend, Mrs. R. L. Scott, nee Mrs. Etta Dudley, we wish much happiness.

The saloonkeepers, we understand, have only a medium supply of Christmas licker and, therefore, we personally advise potential customers to Buy Early.

Grateful acknowledgement is made to Mrs. Townes Duncan, one of the bravest of women, for a renewal.

Brother Pendergrass and helper must have got up early Sunday morning for they nabbed a moonshiner almost before breakfast.

All country newspapers, including the GCW, must inevitably face the loss of much of its revenue heretofore derived from national advertising. If they maintain their old standards, and keep the home fires burning and furnish publicity to various war efforts, call of which bears no financial return) they must receive more income from their job departments; and that's not too much to ask the general public.

The Grenada County Weekly has lived four years and two months longer than its friends (?) predicted it would live. We are a little late in reporting that we got by December 1st by good luck and the indulgence of our creditors.

Cousin Ira missed a day in Grenada recently.

It is a constant source of wonder how a whole lot of young men got by the draft board; it is going to become more and more wonderful as time goes on.

Uncle Charlie Lott, of Holcomb, made one of his infrequent visits to Grenada Monday. He is looking better.

Our favorite ex-nurse, Mrs. Fred Simmons, and her handsome little baby were taking in the Christmas decorations about the Square Monday.

This is not saying that Jim Cuff has the most artistically decorated window, but it is saying that if anyone beats his window they will have to "go some."

Marion Harris, of Holcomb, who rose to the rank of sergeant in the regular army is visiting his mother and other relatives. He is stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia.

Luther Harris, of Oxberry, was a recent visitor to Grenada.

Brother Huffstatler must have given up as a hopeless task the job of converting the heathens at Sledge for he has moved to Holly Springs.

Bill Saunders sold a boar shote and paid his dues.

Our overseer, George Terrell, was missing all day Monday.

Our good friend, Will Criss, of Beat Three, honored our office with a call Monday.

There are many places I would rather be than on the Pacific Coast.

The pitiful part of war is that it requires the cream of the male crop. Older men and the physically unfit have to stay at home.

Wonder how Uncle Billy McCormick is getting along?

While wondering, we wonder how Pony Costilow is making it?

Cousin Martha and Cousin Charles constituted about the most handsome couple that Preacher Pharr has married in a good while.

They say the Methodist like their new preacher.

Merry Christmas to Uncle Jim Weeks.

People now seem to realize that war is no plaything.

Ed Brunson SAYS he has quit dipping snuff. His tale, not mine.

OLD NEWSPAPERS, 5 cents a bundle. Going fast.

Our office was honored Saturday with a brief visit by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Goodman, who are spending a few days in Grenada.

Every recruiting office in the United States is busy. When war is declared, the martial spirit arises in the breasts of young and old alike.

If Mr. Greenfield has overlooked you in his canvass seeking Greeting ads, you can phone in your order.

Our two favorite brunette waitresses from Belmont honored the office with a call Monday.

We note from a communication from Erle Johnston, of Forest, that Lamar Sledge, who helped us establish this newspaper, is going to work with the newspaper of which Erle is the editor, beginning Thursday of this week. Lamar is a good printer and a good boy.

EDITORIAL

We, the members of the Grenada School, like all the other millions of school children, all over the United States, have found our world very greatly changed within the last few days. For the first time in our lives have we had the realization that our country is at war. Most of us don't realize what it means. We've always had the "cock-sure" idea that our lives would always be peaceful and that we would never have any harder problems to solve than perhaps, what college to attend or what vocation to choose for our work. Now things are different. Every normal American citizen wants to do his part. The men in our army camps do their part; the workers in the great production plants must do their part; the leaders in congress and representatives of people must assist the President in taking care of all business and foreign relations. What can we High School boys and girls do? Some boys who are under draft age have both mental and physical strengths to have an active part. Perhaps right now the high school boys and girls can't take an active part, but they can prepare themselves in high school for work that will be beneficial after graduation. One certain way to help is to buy savings stamps with the money we usually squander at the soda fountain or at the theater. It's up to us to do our part!

CHRISTMAS RECITAL

Every year at Christmas time Mrs. Hathorne's pupils give a program for the benefit of needy school children in this community. Mrs. Hathorne should be highly commended for this. This year the proceeds taken in at the door amounted to $17.00. The program was as follows:

Program given—

First part of program—talks by James Thomas and Warren Robinson.

Second part, a play—"The Christmas Party."

Characters—

Mary—(who gives the party)—Lavern Wilson.

Spirit of Christmas—Louise Avent.

Swedish Girl—Marguerite Stanley.

American Girls—Sue Robinson, and Jean Weir.

Doll—Bebe Gwinn.

TECH HIGH SINGERS

One of the finest mixed chorus groups in the Mid-South sang at Grenada High School Friday night at 8 o'clock, December 12. This glee club is directed by Wilson Mount, the well known director of the First Methodist Church choir in Memphis. The Tech Singers had the distinction of singing at the Mid-South fair this fall. They hope to make the trip to the National Contess for Choruses to be held later on this year in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. All of the performers were excellent singers.

The vestments worn were blue trimmed in gold. Attired in these vestments the group presented a very striking picture. The names of those who were present are as follows: Sopranos—Annabelle Poag, Alyce Townsend, Irma Muehl, Jean Hatfield, Maymie Betsy, Fay Brasher, Thelma Ainslie, Edith Clark, Frances Cox, Ora Mae Williams, Barbara Brickley, Martha Young, Emma Akers, Al[illegible] Johnston. Altos—Jerry Gardner, Mari[illegible] Gray, Dorothy Ellis, Mary Grosman, Sue McDaniel, Jessie Wilson, Vivian Jacobs, Martha Beatty, Eula Sansing, Jessie Goar. Tenors—Sidney Webb, Morton Kivel, Maxine Livingston, Jimmy Wright, Erward Crump, Richard Bauer, Frank Butler, Marian Rooker, Gene Davis. Basses—T. R. Perry, Robert Jones, Dorsey Record, Gerald Daniel, Paul Kernodle, Walter Treadway, Eugene Fleet, and Bert Foreman.

The president of this group is Richard Bauer; vice-president, Robert Jones; secretary, Francis Cox; and treasurer, Marian Rooker. The entire group sang several classics and a novelty. Two of the specials were done by Eugene Fleet who sang The Big Vass Voli, and Richard Bauer, who sang You and I. The boys quartet composed of Robert Jones, Eugene Fleet, Paul Kernodle, and Richard Bauer sang "Shortening Bread." The girls trio, Frances Cox, Vivian Jacoks and Sue McDaniels, sang a popular song, "Tonight We Love." The piano accompanists were eJssie Wilson and Frances Cox.

The second part of this program was a Musical Minstrel. Jokes were told and songs were sung. The four comedians were: Frank Butler, Robert Jones, Walter Treadway, and Paul Kernodle. This part was very amusing and several jokes were made about the various Grenada businessmen. These singers proved to be very good actors as well as singers.

Several of these boys have been taking R. O. T. C. training and will soon be called into service. Bert Foreman, the harmonica player, has already joined the Navy.

Everyone felt that these boys and girls put on a splendid program and everyone who missed it really did forego a great pleasure.

BASKETBALL NEWS

Last Thursday night Grenada's basketball teams journeyed to Duck Hill to play their second engagement of this season. Both Duck Hill teams won over Grenada.

In the return games Tuesday night, Duck Hill again defeated the local squad. The girls score was 17-15. The Grenada boys lost by the score of 27-15.

TRAINING COUNTS!

As our country enters another world war we see that the need for well-trained men and women is very great. From the typists and bookkeepers who work in the various offices of the government to the draftsmen in the manufacturing plants, the call is always the same—more well-trained workers. Today there is perhaps no field that doesn't need experts to handle its work. To be most useful to our country, we should strive to educate ourselves to our very best. Let this world crisis teach us that one thing at last—that we make every day at school count. Certainly we should all have something to fight for besides our Great Duty—to fight for our native land—and that is accomplished indirectly by increasing our power and range of thought. Most of all, let us have a goal to reach and then fight to ascend to that desired position. Youth can best serve by knowing How to Serve!

DIRT

We got it straight from headquarters that James Elliott let Catherine Herring have his new class pin when she went to the Band Clinic to keep other boys away. Hope it worked, James.

Speaking of James, Bebe Cullen had a date with Senior Class president, James Thomas for a recent out-of-town basketball game.

Dog and Lib said they had a wonderful time in Houston both at the G. R. Conference and otherwise.

Martha is all thrilled this week 'cause Fred is home.

Here's a joke that has been in the "Bulldog" every year since the beginning; so why should the staff try to change tradition? The only difference is the names are changed.

Miss Lyons: Milton, why are you tardy?

Milton: I guess because I was late in getting here.

Or still a better version that we can't leave out.

Miss Hammond: Benton, you should have been here twenty minutes ago.

Benton: Why, what happened?

Now, who can say we break tradition?

It seems that Bernice and her Texas Army man have called it "quits" again. We imagine that it is like the Benton-Jeanie break ups that always makes up.

JOKES

Brannon: Where in the world did you get that black eye?

Larry: I went to a dance and was struck by the beauty of the place.

Benton: It was strange that I dreamed about Emma Jean last night.

A Friend: What's so strange about it

Benton: I dreamed I was doing all the talking.

Ho: What are you taking for your cold?

Hum: Well, how much will you offer?

HINTS TO SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa Claus:

Please bring these GHS students the following things whether it be animal or plant, girl or boy, or a new bike or kiddy car.

Jackie Lane: A Penn and not the kind you write with.

Tommy Horton: A choo-choo train.

Lambert Gammon: A date with Maggie McCorkle.

Mildred Pate: A secretary to write her typing letters.

The whole typing class: Ditto.

Miss Turner: A little rest.

Monty Daigre: A shorter route to Indianola.

Milton MacElvain: A folding bed that can be carried from class to class.

Coach: A truly brilliant government student and also a student that understands at least the fundamentals of Physics.

Miss Haynes: A student that knows just a smell of solid geometry.

Freshman Granberry: A senior with a sense of tolerance.

Ruth Lee: A visit to Alabama.

Rogers: A little excitement and please Dear Santa Claus let there be a dance once again, in Grenada, just for him.

Mary Lib: A trip to either Ole Miss, Greenwood or Houston.

Jay Gore: A herd of black cows.

Edgar Turnipseed: (He says he's satisfied).

Will Horton: A package of loud firecrackers to shoot on Sunday night.

GHS Basketball Girls: A victory.

GHS Basketball Boys: Ditto.

GHS Student Body: A Coca-Cola machine.

Berta Allen: A trip to Greenwood and another dozen.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA

STYLE HIT PARADE

Have you seen Bill Horton's new yellow sweater? (Personally I don't [illegible] you missed B). We've not tell us whether it was hand-knitted, but we still think it's pretty and bright.

Dot Talbert's new red corduroy jumper is in keeping with the season. You know that her and green are the Christmas colors.

Lou Avent was all "decked" out in a new light blue sweater and blue plaid pleated skirt.

Mary Lou and Lilbia Horton have some Girl Reserve jewelry that they got at the Houston Conference. Mary Lib's is a necklace composed of three triangles with the G. R. symbol in the center. Mary Lou's is a pretty gold President's pin with the G. R. sign on it, and the guard is a mallet which symbolizes her power as President.
